What will BOEM do with the comments it receives?

When the public comment period is finished, BOEM will analyze comments, conduct further analysis as necessary, and prepare the final Environmental Impact Statement (EIS).

In the final EIS, BOEM must respond to the substantive comments received from other government agencies and the public.

The response can be in the form of changes in the final EIS, factual corrections, modifications to the analyses or the alternatives, new alternatives considered, or an explanation of why a comment does not require BOEM's response.

A copy or a summary of substantive comments and the responses to them will be included in the final EIS.
