SECRETARY BABBITT WILL VISIT HERNDON MMS EMPLOYEES (#30006)
Media Representatives Invited to Attend

Secretary of the Interior Bruce Babbitt will meet with employees at the Herndon, VA, offices of the Minerals Management Service (MMS) at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday, February 10, his office announced today.

Accommodations will be available for area reporters and editors, including those from oil, gas and energy trade publications as well as general interest media, according to the announcement.

The meeting is designed to allow the Secretary to meet MMS employees in the Atrium Building and to allow them to ask him questions about their concerns. Babbitt has already held two such meetings at the Main Interior Building in Washington, D.C.

Media representatives who plan to attend are asked to call MMS Public Affairs, (202) 208-3983. Directions to the Atrium Building appear on the reverse.
